

Main Street Community Center – Get to Know the Board of Directors

Our community is blessed by the mission and efforts of the Main Street Community Center. In addition to the awesome staff working at the Center, we have a diverse, hard-working Board of Directors.

Beverly (Bev) Meyer has been closely involved at the Center since 2010 when she became a Board member for the first time. After completing 6 years, she served on the Advisory Council and continued as a member of the Development Committee. She is back on the Board again and still enjoys serving her hometown community in this small way as we work to make the Center a bigger and better place. Bev shares that the Center has been a mission of her church since 1973. She has seen the Center develop and change over those 46 years, and realizes every day that it plays an ever-increasing vital role in our community.

Bev has worked for Madison County, the Edwardsville School District and SIUE, retiring from Academic Counseling and Advising in 2004.

Traveling, cooking some of her mom's heirloom recipes, and going out with friends keep Bev busy.

Other volunteer organizations: Eden Church, Eden Women's Group, and Hoedowners Square Dance Club.
