

Main Street Community Center – Get to Know the Board of Directors

Our community is blessed by the mission and efforts of the Main Street Community Center. In addition to the awesome staff working at the Center, we have a diverse, hard-working Board of Directors.

David A. Leggitt says he wants to make a difference in his community and raise awareness that MSCC is NOT a government-sponsored entity, that it relies on everyday folds to keep providing services for our elderly community.

David works for Aardvark USA, his sister's t-shirt and promotions company. Previously he has been a Stay-at-Home Dad for 16 years. He has also worked for six years at KFNS Radio in St. Louis, including cable TV high school hockey and St. Louis Vipers.

David loves to travel and cook. Tailgates take care of both as they follow SEMO and Mizzou football. His travel motto is never the same place twice.

Other volunteer organizations: Board member for Crawl for a Cause, which organized Edwardsville Pub Crawls and raised about $100,000 over 10 years for smaller, local charities, and Kellsie's Hope Foundation, which raised money for children with cancer.
