

Main Street Community Center – Get to Know the Board of Directors

Our community is blessed by the mission and efforts of the Main Street Community Center. In addition to the awesome staff working at the Center, we have a diverse, hard-working Board of Directors.

Elsie M. Jackson states her greatest passion and joy come from helping and serving others, which plays a vital role in her life. She enjoys touching lives in positive ways. She also shares a smile goes a long way! Board members agree Elsie's smiles are golden!

Elsie has experience through her years of employment working in customer service, financial services, coordinating programs and serving as a workers' compensation representative. She retired from Hortica Insurance after 29 years and currently works part-time for the ACT/Madison County Transit.

She enjoys spending time with her husband, children, all 10 of her grandchildren and traveling when possible keep her busy when she is not working or volunteering.

Other volunteer organizations besides MSCC are: serving lunch wherever needed at Immanuel United Methodist Church in Edwardsville, State Supervisor of Women's Works over six churches in Illinois, Finance Chairperson and Substitute Sunday School teacher at her local church, former head of Missionary department for 15 years and founder of Annual Women's Relaxed Luncheon.
