

Main Street Community Center – Get to Know the Board of Directors

Our community is blessed by the mission and efforts of the Main Street Community Center. In addition to the awesome staff working at the Center, we have a diverse, hard-working Board of Directors.

S. LaVernn Wilson states volunteering has always been a part of her life as she gives back to the community where she lives. The MSCC mission supports goals that are important to LaVernn, providing many educations and recreational programs for the 50+ population. She further states she enjoys being a part of the Mains Street Community Center.

LaVernn began her teaching career teaching first grade and children with behavioral issues. In 1971 she became the Director of the Early Childhood Center at SIUE. She also taught Early Childhood courses at SIUE and at Webster University. She has been retired since 2000.

For fun, LaVernn likes to read, quilt, play bridge, and go to lunch.

The majority of LaVernn's current volunteering is with her church, St. Andrew's Episcopal. She is an office volunteer, a member of the Flower Guild, Co-Chairperson of the Quilt Guild and The Quilt and Fabric Art Show each year. LaVernn was also on the Founding Board of the Edwardsville Children's Museum.
